

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA ADVISORY

POWERING LARGE MINE PROJECTS PRESENTATIONS SET
Energy Committee to meet in Anchorage Oct. 27

Thursday, October 21, 2010, Anchorage, Alaska – The House Special Committee on Energy will meet Wednesday, Oct. 27 at the Anchorage LIO to learn about the energy needs for five proposed mines in Alaska.

Representatives from five companies will explain their preliminary plans to power the mines. The five mining projects are the Chuitna Coal Project, the Livengood Project, the Pebble Project, the Donlin Creek Mine and Usibelli's Wishbone Hill Mine.

Journalists outside of Anchorage can listen to the meeting by calling the teleconference line at 1-877-763-5073.

For more information, contact Jeff Turner at (907) 269-0226.

WHO: House Special Committee on Energy
Representatives from Pebble, Chuitna, Livengood, Donlin Creek and Usibelli
WHAT: Energy requirements for proposed mines in Alaska
WHEN: Wednesday, October 27, 2010 – 11:00 a.m.
WHERE: Anchorage LIO, Room 220
716 W 4th Avenue

# #